2. OBJECTIVES

2.1. General Information

The Anti-Bribery & Anti-Corruption (“ABAC”) Policy & Guidelines (hereinafter referred to as “Policy & Guidelines”) defines the policies and procedures for CPE Technology Bhd (“CPE Technology”) and its subsidiary companies (collectively known as “the Group”). Rules (including Circulars and Letters) from the regulators shall automatically supersede the existing operating policies and procedures herein stated.

The Policy & Guidelines are applicable to the following stakeholders:

- a) Directors of the Group, both executive and non-executive, unless otherwise stated in this Policy & Guidelines;
- b) every employee within the Group; and
- c) suppliers, sub-contractors, consultants, agents, representatives and others performing work or services for or on behalf of the Group.

It is the intention of Board of Directors (“BOD”) of the Group to ensure that these procedures serve as our commitment to prohibit bribery and corruption in the business conduct within the Group.

2.2. Policy & Guidelines Objectives

The main objectives of this Policy & Guidelines are as follows:

- To ensure the policies and guidelines / practices are oriented towards embedding ABAC stance organisation wide, with guidance from Guideline on Adequate Procedures and requirements of Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (“MACC”) Act 2009 (amended 2018), introduced via Section 4 of the MACC (Amendment) Act 2018;
- To ensure adequate and standardised ABAC policies and guidelines are consistently applied throughout the Group by all relevant staff; and

- To ensure that business operations within the Group are strictly adhering to the ABAC Policy & Guidelines.

3. RESPONSIBILITY

3.1. Board of Directors

- Sets commitment towards prohibition of bribery and corruption in the business conduct within the Group;
- Ensures the alignment of ABAC Policy & Guidelines to the strategy of the Group;
- Maintains oversight on ABAC governance, ensuring that best practices of ABAC management system is established, implemented, maintained and reviewed to adequately address the Group's bribery and corruption risks, including the Policy & Guidelines; and
- Promotes appropriate ABAC culture within the Group.

3.2. Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") / Managing Director ("MD")

- Provides overall direction on the establishment, implementation and periodic review of ABAC Policy & Guidelines;

- Supports the resource allocation and investment in a robust and effective ABAC Policy & Guidelines;
- Supports adequate training and awareness programmes for the employees of the Group;
- Communicates on the ABAC Policy & Guidelines, both internally and externally;
- Promotes appropriate ABAC culture within the Group; and
- Supports other relevant management personnel in preventing and detecting bribery and corruption.

3.3. Chief Financial Officer ("CFO")

- Ensures that the ABAC Policy & Guidelines are adhered to within the Group;
- Reports on non-compliance cases to the ARMC, including follow-up action status on the said cases;
- Attends to inquiries about the Group's ABAC Policy & Guidelines and its practices within the Group; and
- Facilitates the corruption risk assessment periodically.

3.4. Employee

- Executes the ABAC Policy & Guidelines, including enhancement of underlying controls on affected functions under his/ her responsibility, as elaborated in this Policy & Guidelines;
- Adheres to the requirement of the ABAC Policy & Guidelines; and
- Reports on suspected bribery or corruption via the whistleblowing channel of the Group.

3.5. Amendments to Policy & Guidelines

- If there is any requirement to update, improve, and / or amendments made to this Policy & Guidelines, proposed changes shall be submitted for authorisation and for approval by the Board of Directors. Key information on addition of new policy / procedure and deletion or variation of existing policy / procedures shall be indicated for version control purpose.

4. CORRUPTION RISK ASSESSMENT (“CRA”) APPROACH

4.1. The Group had established a Corruption Risk Management Framework guided by ISO 37001:2016 and Guidelines on Adequate Procedures. The framework outlines the governance, structure and policies, assessment process, and integration of risk management into the Group operations activities to promote continuous monitoring on the corruption risk identified. The corruption risk assessment process is depicted in the diagram below:

Risk Identification	Risk Analysis	Risk Evaluation
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify business objectives or strategic goals and key processes • Identify key corruption risks 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Analyse the corruption scheme and root cause, which may cover both possible and actual) • Determine existing key controls 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Determine existing risk rating (both likelihood and impact) • Risk profiling

4.2. The BOD, through the Management, which comprises of CEO/MD, Senior Management and Head of Departments shall oversee and ensure accountability of corruption risk identified with the corresponding controls to be implemented.

4.3. The risk parameters (i.e. financial impact, customer relationship and reputation/media) are established to estimate the consequences of a risk, namely likelihood of occurrence and criticality of impact, based on the Group’s risk appetite.

4.4. Risk Register is developed to capture potential corruption scheme(s), possible root causes, existing key controls and impact are maintained for the Group. The risks are then evaluated based on the likelihood of occurrence and criticality of impact (i.e. Low, Moderate, High and Significant) to provide a basis for Management in strategic decision-making process and mitigation of corruption risks.

4.5. The Group shall conduct regular risk assessment, i.e. on an annual basis and/or when there is a change in law or circumstance of the business to ensure the identified corruption risks are remains relevant and adequate mitigating controls are discussed and implemented.

4.6. Specific anti-corruption plan including the TRUST procedures of MACC 17A(5) shall be identified by the CFO and reported to the CEO/MD for review and monitoring.

5. GIFT AND CORPORATE HOSPITALITY

The Group recognises the importance of gift and corporate hospitality giving/acceptance, donation and sponsorship activities to maintain good rapport with its vendors, customers (if any) and government officials. The policies and procedures set out below are to safeguard the Group's reputation and to protect its employee from allegation of soliciting bribe, corruption or exercising undue influence on external party(s) for personal gain.

5.1. Purchase of Gift and Corporate Hospitality

- (a) Purchase requisition pertaining gift and corporate hospitality shall be a reasonable amount, subject to the approval in line with the Delegation of Authority ("DOA") and Traveling, Entertainment & Business Gift Policy. Such gifts and hospitality shall fulfil ALL the following conditions prior to approval:
- i. They are intended to maintain good rapport with the vendors / customers of the Group and government officials;
 - ii. They are limited, customary and lawful under the circumstances;
 - iii. They do not have or perceived to be affecting action(s) or decision(s) of the receiving party;
 - iv. There shall be no expectation of any specific favour, benefit or advantages from the intended recipients;
 - v. There shall not be any corrupt/ criminal intent; and
 - vi. The giving out of gift or corporate hospitality shall be transparent.
- (b) Purchase requisition pertaining to gift and corporate hospitality for government official from the public sector, it shall be restricted to statutory limit of the respective countries. However, gift in the form of cash or cash equivalent shall never be given or offered to any public or government officials.
- (c) Purchase requisition on gift or corporate hospitality shall be indicated with purpose of requisition, including client or vendor name or representative details.
- (d) In the event of any dispute between any internal practice, existing policy and or procedure already imbedded within the constitution of the organisation prior to the commencement of this ABAC Policy & Guidelines, the limits set in Section 5 of this ABAC Policy & Guidelines shall prevail over all other documentation.

5.2. Gift Acceptance

- (a) Under no circumstances that an employee of the Group shall receive or solicit for personal gift from an external party.
- (b) Although the general principle is to immediately refuse or return such gifts, accepting a gift on behalf of the Group is allowed only in very limited circumstances, whereby refusing the gift is likely to seriously offend and may sever the Group's business relationship with the Third Party. However, in no circumstances may an employee, director or his/her family/household members accept gifts in the form of cash or cash equivalent.

- (c) Proper declaration on the gift acceptance from the external party(s) shall be done by the employee of the Group to the Human Resource (“HR”) & Administration department in line with the latest Delegation of Authority (“DOA”) and Traveling, Entertainment & Business Gift Policy, whichever applicable.

5.3. Entertainment Acceptance

- (a) Employees of the Group shall exercise proper care and judgment prior to accepting entertainment from external party. This is vital to safeguard the Group’s reputation and to protect its employee from allegation of soliciting bribe or corruption.
- (b) Proper declaration on the entertainment acceptance from the external party(s) shall be done by the employee of the Group to the Human Resource (“HR”) & Administration department in line with the latest Delegation of Authority (“DOA”) and Traveling, Entertainment & Business Gift Policy, whichever applicable.

6. CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY OR ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE (“ESG”)

All Corporate Social Responsibility (“CSR”) or Environmental, Social and Governance (“ESG”) related sponsorships and donations shall be made in accordance with the Group’s policies with prior approval by authorised personnel in line with the DOA.

Given the nature of the Group’s business, government agencies or local authority bodies may request for sponsorship and/or donations in respect of CSR or ESG events. As part of the Group’s commitment to corporate social responsibility and sustainable development, as a general matter, the Group provides such assistance in appropriate circumstances and in an appropriate manner.

Such requests shall be examined for legitimacy and not be made to improperly influence a business outcome. The proposed recipient shall be a legitimate organisation and appropriate due diligence shall be conducted in particular to ascertain whether any public officials are affiliated with the organisation. Any red flags shall be resolved before committing any funds to the programme. Even requests determined to be legitimate shall be carefully structured to ensure that the benefits reach their intended recipients.

If any employees or Directors are in any doubt as to whether a charitable contribution or social benefit is appropriate, Management shall seek legal consultation accordingly.

6.1. Donation and Sponsorship

- (a) Employees shall ensure that all sponsorships and donations are not used as a subterfuge for bribery or used to circumvent or avoid any of the provisions of the Code of Ethics and Conduct, including in particular, the prohibition on bribery. The Group needs to be certain that donations to foreign-based charities or beneficiaries are not disguised illegal payments to government officials, and shall ensure that the charity does not act as a conduit to fund illegal activities in violation of international anti-money laundering, anti-terrorism and other applicable laws.

- (b) The Policy & Guidelines, in accordance with the Group's commitment to contribute to the community coupled with its values of integrity and transparency, all sponsorships and donations shall comply with the following:
- ensure such contributions are allowed by applicable laws;
 - obtain all the necessary internal and external authorisations;
 - be made to well established entities having an adequate organisational structure to guarantee proper administration of the funds;
 - be accurately stated in the company's accounting books and records; and
 - not to be used as a means to cover up an undue payment or bribery.

Examples of red flags to look out for are as follows:

- The proposed recipient /organisation have affiliations with a Public Official or their relatives are involved;
 - The contribution is made on behalf of a Public Official;
 - There is a risk of a perceived improper advantage for the Group; or
 - The proposed recipient is based in a high-risk country, the request comes from a high-risk country or the activity takes place in a high-risk country.
- (c) The Group requires employees to use good judgment and common sense in assessing the requests. When in doubt, employees shall seek for legal advice or escalate the matter to the CEO/MD to determine the authenticity of such requests.
- (d) Donation and sponsorship are only permissible with proper approval in accordance to the latest Delegation of Authority ("DOA") and Traveling, Entertainment & Business Gift Policy, whichever applicable. All donations and sponsorship payment shall be supported with an official letter of request from the requesting external party and proof of receipt.

7. FACILITATION AND EXTORTION PAYMENTS

Facilitation payment to external party, in particular, government officials, is strictly prohibited as it is seen as a form of bribery and corruption. Extortion payment to external party, on the other hand, is not categorised as an illegal activity by legal means, as the health, safety and liberty of one is paramount.

The Finance and Accounts Department shall maintain a record of such event and report the payment to the relevant authority.

7.1. Facilitation Payment

- (a) Facilitation payment to external party, in particular, government officials, is strictly prohibited as it is seen as a form of bribery and corruption, unless it can be proven that such payment is legitimate and supported by an official receipt.
- (b) Facilitation payment shall not be in any way or form be disguised or translated in personnel remuneration package.

- (c) Subject to the fulfilment of criteria in Para 7.1(a), facilitation payment request must be approved in accordance to the latest Delegation of Authority (“DOA”) and Traveling, Entertainment & Business Gift Policy, whichever applicable.

7.2. Extortion Payment

- (a) Extortion payment to any party shall not be made unless the employee(s) and or their families health, safety and or liberty are threatened.
- (b) Subject to the fulfilment of criteria in Para 7.2(a), extortion payment request may be approved in accordance to the latest Delegation of Authority (“DOA”) and Traveling, Entertainment & Business Gift Policy, whichever applicable.

8. DUE DILIGENCE PROCEDURES AND DEALING WITH EXTERNAL PARTIES

The Group recognises the objective of due diligence procedures on business partners, vendors and employees to evaluate the risk of bribery and corruption associated with these parties. This also serves as a basis for decision making, whether to accept or reject before entering into any contractual arrangement or business dealing.

The Group shall require due diligence procedures to be applied on the key stakeholders below:
